Registration

Registration for participation in the conference is based on sending an e-mail to eiaecsad@usv.ro. E-mail should contain the REGISTRATION FORM (which contains all the necessary information: title, abstract and keywords in Romanian and in English (only in English for foreign participants), and a short paragraph with the author's / authors' biodata; each author must complete the full identification data: Name and surname, academic rank, affiliation institution, e-mail address).

By joining the Conference, the participant agrees with the existing data processing policy at the host university level.

Presentation methods

Presentation of the papers submitted to the Conference can be done in 3 ways:

- ORAL Presentation

This type of presentation implies the direct participation, in person, in a section that will be scheduled by the Organizers. The free presentation can be accompanied by a PowerPoint brought by the participant on electronic support (USB or CD drive). The organizers will provide participants with a computer connected to the projector in each room where presentations will be held.
